Compliance Committee

Representatives from the board of directors will be selected to form a Compliance Committee to ensure that the requirements of the Equality Bill and the Terms and Conditions of this Equality Statement are being adhered to and to monitor and evaluate the interpretation of these documents.

- The President will review the Compliance Committee reports on an annual basis, to establish progress against the statement of intent and ensure the Statement and Policy remain appropriate and effective.
- The Compliance Committee shall report directly to the board of directors with whom overall responsibility for ensuring adherence to the Equality Bill and the Terms and Conditions of this Equality Statement rests.
- The committee will review process and operation to consider the level of compliance in relation to the legislation.
- The committee should identify areas and processes for change where necessary and make reasonable adjustments to this Statement of Intent and the Equality Policy as required.
- The committee should record their reasonable conclusions and track progress to completion of any changes that they recommend in consideration of the Act.

Complaints

The content of this document applies equally to members, associate members, visitors, guests, employees, servants, agents and service providers of the club. The President has overall responsibility to the board of directors for ensuring that the requirements of this document are implemented. The day to day responsibility for the Statement of Intent and Equality Policy will rest with the Secretary/Manager.

- Any complaint or grievance will be dealt with via the appropriate policy and procedures, e.g. Disciplinary Procedure, Grievance Procedure or Mediation process.
- Allegations of inequitable behaviour emanating from the actions of an employee of the club will be investigated in accordance with the terms and conditions of employment relating to that employee.
- Allegations of inequitable behaviour emanating from the actions of the club Professional or any of his staff who are members of the Professional Golfers Association (PGA) will be investigated in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreed contract between the Club and the Professional staff or if none within the Complaints Procedure applying to a Breach of the Club's Equity Policy. All incidents and allegations shall be notified to the PGA for their records.
- Allegations of inequitable behaviour emanating from the actions of a member towards a fellow member, an associate member, a visitor, a guest, an employee, servant agent or service provider will be investigated within the Complaints Procedure applying to a Breach of the Club Equity Policy. If an incident involving a member of the Club is alleged to have occurred touching upon the conduct of a member at another golf club and reported to the Club in accordance with that club's policies, the member shall be subject to a Disciplinary Hearing at the Club.
- Allegations of inequitable behaviour emanating from the actions of a casual visitor to the club who is a member of a golf club affiliated to the English, Scottish or Welsh Golf Unions towards a member, an employee, visitor, or guest will be initially investigated by the Secretary/Manager of the Club. If the evidence leads the secretary/manager to conclude that a breach of the Club Equity Policy has likely occurred, the evidence should be passed to the home club of the alleged offender to be further investigated and dealt with in accordance with their Disciplinary Procedures. If the home club declines to investigate the allegation the Club may refer the incident to their County Union/County Association for action under their Disciplinary Policy and Procedures. If the County Union/Association declines to investigate the Club may refer the incident to the relevant Home Golf Union for action under their Disciplinary Policy and Procedures. If such a situation occurs and the allegation is proven, the Club, in addition to any sanction imposed at that hearing, will exercise their own prerogative in respect of initiating an appropriate action and which will be limited to the authority of the Club, against the alleged offender on behalf of the Club.

- Allegations of inequitable behaviour emanating from the actions of a casual visitor to the club who is not a member of a golf club affiliated to any of the Home Unions towards a member, an employee, visitor or guest will be initially investigated by the Secretary/Manager of the Club. If the evidence leads the secretary/manager to conclude that a breach of the Club Equity Policy has likely occurred, the evidence should be passed to the appropriate authorities for action under the Equality Laws and to the relevant Home Union for action under their Disciplinary Policy and Procedures. If such a situation occurs and the allegation is proven, the Club, in addition to any sanction imposed at that hearing, will exercise their own prerogative in respect of initiating an action against the alleged offender banning them from the Club for a period of time to be agreed. In the event that an allegation is proven the Club (cognisant of Human Rights Law) will use its best endeavours to notify other clubs of the outcome and of the name of the offender.
- In all cases the alleged offender will be invited to attend the Disciplinary Hearing. If this invitation is declined then the hearing shall proceed absente reo.

If any dispute arises in connection with this policy, the parties will attempt to settle it by mediation in accordance with the Mediation Procedure of the National Golf Club's Advisory Association (NGCAA). Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the mediator will be nominated by the Chairman of the NGCAA. To initiate the mediation a party must give notice in writing ('ADR notice') to the other party(ies) to the dispute requesting a mediation. A copy of the request should be sent to the NGCAA. The mediation will start not later than 56 days after the date of the ADR notice. The commencement of mediation will not prevent the party(ies) commencing or continuing court proceedings/an arbitration.

Discipline

In accordance with the Club Code of Conduct, Disciplinary and Grievance Policy and Procedures, any reports of alleged breaches of our Equity Policy will be investigated and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken, based on the outcome of the investigation.
