Owston Hall Golf Club Reciprocal Agreement

Members Policy

All 7 and 5 day members are eligible to enter the agreement by purchasing the additional Owston Hall category which can be paid with the member's annual subscription due on the 31st of December each calendar year.

The Category runs from the 1st of January until the 31st of December of each year.

Members can join the category at any time throughout the year but will pay the full amount due for that current year

By purchasing this additional category the member will be allowed the following entitlements:

- A midweek 5 day membership of Owston Hall Golf Club allowing unlimited golf as an away member.
- Eligibility to enter Owston Hall midweek competitions held throughout the year.
- Access to Owston Hall BRS booking system allowing member to book up to 12 days in advance
- Members will be entitled to play at weekends upon payment of a subsidised green fee.
- Members will be allowed to bring up to a maximum of three guests at any one time upon payment of the prevailing member's guest rate. They will be responsible for the conduct of their guests.
- Members will be issued with an Owston Hall ball marker which will allow the current member's discount on food and drink purchased in the clubhouse.
- Members will be entitled to preferential rates on accommodation at Owston Hall

Speculative bookings must not be made, and no member should hold a tee time at both clubs for the same day. If any member is found to be abusing the system their playing privileges can be revoked by either club.
